1. The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.
2. Claims 1-9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Hirano et al, U.S. Patent No. 6,027,777 in view of Aoki et al, U.S. Patent No. 4,880,869 for the reasons set forth in the prior Office action.
3. Applicant's amendment has overcome 112 2nd paragraph rejection of claim 2.
4. Applicant's arguments filed 12/17/03 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Applicant argues that Aoki does not teach employing 0.5 – 20% NCO without also employing beta amino beta propiolactam derivatives. However, the claims do not preclude the use of additional components. Aoki teaches that the NCO radicals should be present in the amount of 0.5-20% in forming moisture curable urethane prepolymers. The fact that Aoki also teaches additional materials does not negate this teaching. The range set forth by Aoki encompasses the claimed range. Therefore, it is the examiner's position that it would have been obvious to have employed the NCO radicals in the range taught by Aoki in forming the urethane prepolymers of Hirano. Also, although the range claimed by Applicant's is narrower, it is still encompassed by the range disclosed by Aoki. Therefore, the rejection has been maintained.
5. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
